BIG VOTE IN THE STATES OF INDIANA AND ILLINOIS

The Election on Tuesday Will Result in Most Decisive Republican Plurality.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM EVERYWHERE

Chairman Hitch, of the Republican State Central Committee of Illinois, Gives McKinley's Majority, Not Founded on Guesses--Cheering Multitudes Give Evidence of Success in the Hoosier State--Rousing Finish of General Harrison's Campaign.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 1.—Chairman Hitch, of the Republican State Central Committee, said last night that the net vote in Illinois would be 850,000, and that outside of Cook county the poll would be 570,000 for McKinley and 277,000 for the opposition in Cook county. Mr. Hitch allowed McKinley 240,000 and Bryan 114,000. The totals for the State are, therefore, 571,000 for McKinley and 370,000 for Bryan, or a majority of 201,000 for McKinley. Mr. Hitch further said:

"The election on Tuesday will give to McKinley and the Republican ticket the most decisive plurality ever known in Illinois. This positive declaration is not founded upon guesswork or mere conjecture. It is the conclusion of an expert in possession of the committee which show the relative standing of the opposing parties in the 225 precincts in the State at large and the 1,929 precincts of Cook county."

THE POLL MADE WITH CARE.—"The poll has been taken with extraordinary care, the Committee on organization having done its work systematically, so as to be advised of all changes of conditions from time to time. The work from these headquarters would have availed little but for this intelligent and active co-operation. These county and precinct committees have been in close alliance with the State headquarters, and we know that they are not deceived as to the situation. They have repeatedly canvassed the same territory and revised the poll in every case."

John R. Tanner will be elected by the largest majority ever given for a governor in this State. He will return a united Republican delegation to the lower House of Congress and secure the Legislature, which elects a successor to Senator John M. Palmer. Chairman Hinrichsen, of the Populistic State committee, says Palmer and Buckner will not receive more than 7,000 votes in Illinois. As to the general situation in the State, he said to me tonight:

"We have more votes in the city of Chicago than the Republicans, and we look for a majority in this city. The State outside is overwhelmingly Democratic and making every allowance for doubtful votes and surplus enthusiasm, I feel that we shall carry this State for the whole ticket by 25,000 or 30,000 plurality. We will elect fourteen of the twenty-two congressmen without question, and will elect sixteen. We will elect a majority of the assembly, while the Republicans will control the senate voting to the large number of holdovers. The Populists will hold the balance of power in the joint assembly, which insures the election of a silver United States senator to succeed Palmer."

Governor Altgeld will lead the ticket in Chicago and in the laboring centers outside. Bryan will probably run ahead in the agricultural districts. FEELS SURE OF ILLINOIS.—"Bryan's tour of the State and his speeches in Chicago have aided the fusion ticket materially. From every county in the State we are receiving devices, Democratic gains except the last poll taken. In some voting precincts in agricultural districts the vote for Bryan will be almost unanimous. I feel that in Illinois we cannot be beaten."

There is complete fusion with the people's party on the state ticket since the withdrawal of Watson, and the fusion on presidential electors is on the basis of four Populists to twenty Democrats. Fusion has been accomplished in all congressional districts except the twentieth, and this has fusion on the legislative candidates in half the districts, wherever it was considered necessary to insure election.

CINCHING INDIANA.

Rousing Finish of General Harrison's Brilliant Campaign in the State.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 1.—General Harrison began his last day of talking to the people of Indiana at Auburn at eight past nine o'clock yesterday morning. About three thousand people gathered, and half of them carried transparencies. He was heartily cheered and his address with a hearty tribute to the American flag, speaking about twenty minutes, and addressing himself almost entirely to the political questions.

A run of five miles brought the train to Waterloo, where an enthusiastic crowd of twenty-five hundred were waiting, composed largely of farmers. General Harrison was taken to a stand and talked for about twenty minutes, enlarging upon the effects free silver would have in ruining the farmers' market and the industries of the country.

Another brief run brought the party to Kendallville, where a crowd of about 1,500 gathered. General Harrison was escorted to the stand by the Reception Committee, who had boarded the train at Waterloo, and was received with prolonged cheering. He was introduced by A. J. Graves, and spoke about fifteen minutes.

At Logansport the arrival of the train was greeted with loud cheering from the crowd of about 4,000 people about the stand. General Harrison was received with enthusiastic cheering, and talked about fifteen minutes, declaring that the victory was already won. The Bryan people were basing their hopes of success, he said, upon two propositions, one that the farmers were fooled with the notion that free coinage would help them to get something for nothing, and the other that the workmen intended to go to the polls and vote directly against what they have been declaring they intended to do.

General Harrison reached at one o'clock, and here a crowd of fully 20,000 was waiting. Great preparations had been made for the event by the Republican managers, and when the train arrived they were just finishing a parade, with something over 6,000 men in

LAST DAYS OF THE BRYAN CAMPAIGN

Preparing to Make a Flying Trip Through Nebraska.

WILL MAKE FINAL SPEECHES TODAY

The Boy Orator Arrives at His Home in Lincoln, Nebraska, and Sleeps Through the Day--Happy Reunion of the Bryan Family--Telegram to Chairman Jones.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 1.—A long sleep this afternoon and a longer one to night was William J. Bryan's way of preparing for his flying trip through Nebraska to-morrow. The unprecedented campaign of the candidate practically ended this morning, when he stepped from his private car, "Idler," furnished by the Democratic National Committee, in the Burlington station here. He and Mrs. Bryan spent last night in Council Bluffs and rode over to Omaha this morning on an electric car to take the 8.20 train for Lincoln, to which the "Idler" was attached. About 200 people were waiting for Mr. Bryan here. They gave him a suppressed Sunday morning greeting, and he shook hands with him as he walked smilingly to the carriage he was waiting. There was a joyous scene of courtesies at the Bryan residence, when the three children of the candidate welcomed their father and mother.

Mr. Bryan was tired, and went to bed soon after reaching home. He slept until supper time, and retired again early to-night to secure a good rest for to-morrow's journey. His own State of Nebraska was selected by Mr. Bryan for the final rally of the silver forces. The candidate had felt that he would carry the State was the reason for not making a tour within its boundaries earlier in the campaign. It was the same with regard to Kansas, but that State and his own are the only two previously in the Republican column, with the exception of those which have been won by the silver sentiment is considered the strongest, that was neglected in his fight for Democratic victory. The long and hard working campaign Mr. Bryan has pursued with his departure from Chicago on July 13, the Monday following his nomination. From that time to this he has been on the go, barring three weeks spent in Lincoln prior to his departure for New York City to be formally notified of his selection as the Democratic standard bearer, and a week in the quiet surroundings of Upper Red Hook.

THE ORATOR'S TRAVELS.—He went as far north as Duluth, Minn., and as far south as Memphis, Tenn., while the Atlantic coast was covered from North Carolina to Maine. Today, however, Mr. Bryan will travel when he returns to Lincoln again Tuesday morning, after his Nebraska round-trip. He has not been accurate in his calculations, and he will be accompanied him intended to give out the correct figures by a careful study of railroad maps and tables of distances. The party which will accompany him proximate estimate. The Democratic candidate visited twenty-seven states and also made a speech in the District of Columbia.

Mr. Bryan will leave Lincoln on the "Idler" by a special train at 6.45 o'clock and is due in Omaha at six in the evening. Next morning he will depart for St. Paul.

Mr. Bryan tonight sent the following dispatch to Senator Jones: Hon. J. K. Jones, Chairman Democratic National Committee, St. Paul, Minn.: I suggest that you urge all members of silver clubs throughout the United States to meet here, where they may be possible to our cause. In States where the bolting Democrats have been allowed to vote, they may be urged to resist the party for our people to warn voters of the deception and at all polling places they will be urged to vote for McKinley. We are fighting for existence and we must be prepared to meet them at every point. W. J. Bryan.

BISHOP KEANE WANTED.—Will Be Appointed a Titular Archbishop by the Pope. London, Nov. 1.—A dispatch from Rome to the Central News says that the Pope will raise the diocese of Buffalo, N. Y., to a metropolitan see with jurisdiction over Rochester, Syracuse and Elmira.

His Holiness today received Cardinal Satolli, late papal delegate to the United States, who recently returned to Rome. The cardinal will, it is said, appoint Bishop Keane a titular archbishop.

The Daily News will to-morrow publish a dispatch from Rome saying that Cardinal Satolli has returned to the situation in the United States, especially the political situation. Although the Cardinals' views are not known, their success is certain he apprehends the consequences, which, if they are not immediately grave, will be so at the end of the year. The present differences will be augmented.

DELAWARE NOT DOUBTFUL.—Hugh C. Browne Says the State Will Give McKinley 1,500 Majority. Wilmington, Del., Nov. 1.—Hugh C. Browne, chairman of the Republican State committee, this afternoon telegraphed the United Associated Presses as follows: The reports that Delaware is doubtful for McKinley are without foundation. It is untrue that, because Mr. Adickes lay down, the Republican vote was not qualified. "It was never better qualified by payment of poll taxes and full registration than this year. Mr. Adickes' organization did not qualify the vote. That was done by the regular Republicans, who are in excellent shape. The assertion that the financial condition of Mr. Adickes had anything to do with qualifying the vote, is not true. We understood and completed the work. Delaware will surely give McKinley 1,000 majority, barring treachery."

CRASH ON THE PENNSY.—One Man Killed and Another Seriously Wounded. West Chester, Pa., Nov. 1.—The second section of the day express on the Pennsylvania railroad, four hours late, crashed into the rear end of a freight train at Whitford, at 9 o'clock last night, killing one man and seriously wounding another. The caboose, in which was John Clark, a driver of Pleasant, Ohio, was smashed into splinters. Clark was fearfully mangled and when taken out was dead. His body was conveyed to Downingtown. The conductor, brakeman and flagman of the freight were all quite seriously injured and were removed to the hospital at Philadelphia. Except a damaged locomotive and a badly shaken up lot of passengers the passenger

CHAIRMAN HANNA'S FINAL ESTIMATE

The Republican Candidate Sure of 311 Electoral Ballots.

MR. MCKINLEY'S COLUMN OF VOTES

Some Changes in Doubtful States Made by Mr. Hanna--Closing Days at Campaign Headquarters--Flag Day in Chicago--An Awaiting Business Boom.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Chairman Hanna made public yesterday afternoon, as a hint that the campaign had closed, his final estimate of the strength which each candidate will have in the Electoral College after Tuesday's balloting. A week ago Mr. Hanna, in a signed statement in The Tribune, predicted that Major McKinley would certainly secure 302 electoral votes from the following twenty-eight States:

California, 9; Colorado, 3; Connecticut, 5; Delaware, 3; Florida, 9; Georgia, 7; Idaho, 3; Illinois, 21; Indiana, 11; Iowa, 7; Kansas, 6; Kentucky, 7; Louisiana, 7; Maine, 3; Maryland, 6; Massachusetts, 11; Michigan, 10; Minnesota, 6; Missouri, 9; Montana, 3; Nebraska, 3; Nevada, 3; New Jersey, 7; New York, 33; North Carolina, 7; North Dakota, 3; Ohio, 21; Oklahoma, 3; Oregon, 3; Pennsylvania, 21; Rhode Island, 3; South Carolina, 7; South Dakota, 3; Tennessee, 7; Texas, 7; Utah, 3; Vermont, 3; Virginia, 7; West Virginia, 5; Wisconsin, 7; Wyoming, 3. Total, 302.

Nine more states—Idaho, Louisiana, Missouri, Montana, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah and Virginia—with 34 electoral votes, were put up by Mr. Hanna in the doubtful column. Eight states—Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, Nevada and South Carolina—with 61 votes, were conceded to the Populistic candidate.

In this afternoon's estimate Mr. Hanna puts the minimum of Major McKinley's strength in the electoral college at 311 instead of 302. These twenty-eight states are counted as safe for the Republican ticket.

California, 9; New York, 33; Connecticut, 5; Nebraska, 3; Delaware, 3; North Carolina, 7; Illinois, 21; North Dakota, 3; Indiana, 11; Ohio, 21; Iowa, 7; Oregon, 3; Kentucky, 7; Pennsylvania, 21; Maine, 3; Rhode Island, 3; Maryland, 6; South Dakota, 3; Massachusetts, 11; Tennessee, 7; Minnesota, 6; Vermont, 3; West Virginia, 5; New Hampshire, 3; Wisconsin, 7; New Jersey, 7; Wyoming, 3. Total, 311.

KANSAS, with 10 votes; Virginia, with 7, and Washington, with 4, are classed as probably safe for McKinley. Missouri, with 17 votes, and Texas, with 15, are not in the doubtful column, and the following twelve States, with 78 votes, are credited outright to Bryan:

Alabama, 7; Mississippi, 5; Arkansas, 7; Louisiana, 7; Missouri, 9; Florida, 9; Georgia, 7; South Carolina, 7; North Carolina, 7; Tennessee, 7; Texas, 7; Utah, 3; Idaho, 3. Total, 78.

CHANGES IN DOUBTFUL STATES.—The changes made by Mr. Hanna in his tables since Oct. 23 are interesting. Then he counted Kansas and Washington, with 14 votes, as safe Republican states. Now they are put down as only probably Republican. On Tuesday's election will not be less than 311 votes. This estimate is made upon figures just received from chairman of state committees, the result of a poll taken in such a careful manner as to give them the highest credence."

JOSEPH SMITH'S ESTIMATE.—Thinks That McKinley Will Receive Over a Million Plurality. Canton, O., Nov. 1.—Hon. Joseph Smith, one of Major McKinley's secretaries during the campaign, has compiled the following estimated pluralities of the popular vote for president. These estimates are from prominent Republicans and are as follows:

Alabama, Bryan, 15,000; Arkansas, Bryan, 20,000; Colorado, Bryan, 45,000; Connecticut, McKinley, 40,000; Delaware, McKinley, 25,000; Florida, Bryan, 30,000; Georgia, Bryan, 50,000; Idaho, Bryan, 7,000; Illinois, McKinley, 150,000; Indiana, McKinley, 150,000; Iowa, McKinley, 80,000; Kansas, McKinley, 80,000; Kentucky, McKinley, 70,000; Louisiana, both parties claim state; Maine, McKinley, 40,000; Maryland, McKinley, 50,000; Massachusetts, McKinley, 100,000; Michigan, McKinley, 100,000; Minnesota, McKinley, 100,000; Missouri, both parties claim state; Montana, Bryan, 5,000; Nebraska, McKinley, 20,000; Nevada, Bryan, 5,000; New Hampshire, McKinley, 15,000; New Jersey, McKinley, 40,000; New York, McKinley, 500,000; North Carolina, McKinley, 5,000; North Dakota, McKinley, 20,000; Ohio, McKinley, 100,000; Oregon, McKinley, 5,000; Pennsylvania, McKinley, 200,000; Rhode Island, McKinley, 12,000; South Carolina, Bryan, 40,000; South Dakota, McKinley, 5,000; Tennessee, McKinley, 5,000; Texas, both parties claim state; Utah, McKinley, 5,000; Vermont, McKinley, 5,000; Virginia, both parties claim state; Washington, McKinley, 20,000; West Virginia, McKinley, 10,000; Wisconsin, McKinley, 10,000; Wyoming, McKinley, 10,000. Total—McKinley, 1,415,000; Bryan, 225,000.

Lieut. Peary Ordered to Brooklyn. Washington, Nov. 1.—Civil Engineer E. Peary, United States navy, whose leave of absence for Arctic exploration has expired, is ordered to duty at the New York naval yard, where the civil engineering force has been unable to cope with the work at hand. Medical Director Nelson will probably be replaced on November 10 on the Maine by Surgeon L. J. Hensberger.

Republicans Claim Wyoming. Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 1.—The silver sentiment is strong in this State and the chances are in favor of a victory for Bryan. Medical Director Nelson will probably be replaced on November 10 on the Maine by Surgeon L. J. Hensberger.

Capitalist Drops Dead. Cincinnati, O., Nov. 1.—During the sound money parade here yesterday afternoon Henry Lowenstein, a prominent capitalist and director of the Cincinnati Abolition company, dropped dead while marching with his employees.

The Herald's Weather Forecast. New York, Nov. 2.—In the middle states, today, clear and slightly cooler weather will prevail. From the southeast to the northwest winds followed by a slow rise in temperature. On Tuesday, fair weather will probably prevail. Slightly higher temperature, fresh southwesterly to southerly winds followed by rain in western districts of this section near the lakes.

BLIZZARD APPROACHES.

Heavy Snowfall in Dakota and Wisconsin.

Huron, S. D., Nov. 1.—Friday's wind and snow storm was more severe over the northern and western portion of the State than was first supposed. Many trunks in the Missouri, Missouri and Cheyenne river ranges will suffer heavy losses of cattle, the storm being very heavy in those sections. Snow is reported from twelve to fifteen inches deep and badly drifted. No telegraphic communications from here west to Pierre has been had since Thursday evening and it is feared stock in the foot hills and on the Sioux reservation suffered greatly.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 1.—A genuine blizzard prevailed throughout the western and central sections of the State yesterday. Snow began to fall early in the morning. Heavy falls are reported from Watertown, Grand Rapids, Mauston, Beaver Dam, Chilton, Juneau, Horicon and a number of other points.

INDIANA'S MAJORITY.—The Republican Plurality May Reach Sixty Thousand. Indianapolis, Nov. 1.—Chairman Gowdy, of the Republican State committee this afternoon furnished the following signed statement: "A conservative estimate of the situation in this State shows that Indiana will give a Republican plurality of not less than 50,000, and if as we have reason to believe a large per cent. of silent voters are in the Republican ticket, the plurality may reach 60,000. The Republicans will elect all of the thirteen congressmen and a Republican to the United States senate to succeed Daniel W. Voorhees."

DEFENCE OF SEAPORTS.

General Craigill Says That in Another Year the Country Will Be One-fifth Prepared to Resist Attacks.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Under the head of fortifications in his annual report General Craigill, Chief of Engineers, says that detailed projects have been prepared for the defense of the coast from Portland, Me., Portsmouth, N. H.; Boston, Narragansett Bay, eastern entrance to Long Island Sound (partial), New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, New Haven and Wilmington, N. C.; Charleston, Savannah, Key West, Pensacola, Mobile, New Orleans, mouth of Columbia River and Puget Sound. In addition partial projects have been approved for the defense of the lake ports, Cumberland Sound, Kennebec, New Bedford, Penobscot Bay, New Haven and New London. Complete projects for the defense of these places are under consideration, and also for Port Royal, S. C., and Tortugas, Fla.

During the year there have been negotiations for the purchase of sites at Charleston, Baltimore, Narragansett Bay and Portland. A number of points where fortifications are urgently desired nothing can be done, because the land has not yet been acquired. The estimated cost of the work of the last congress for the purchase of sites has been pledged, and to continue the work an appropriation of the same amount for next year is requested.

General Craigill urgently recommends an appropriation of $100,000 for the preservation and repair of fortifications, saying that as a result of the failure of congress to make proper provision in the past for their care, the ungarriioned fortifications and reservations are now in a deplorable state with the perishable portions almost worthless, and the heavy masonry work slowly being destroyed.

He says that the work of preparing emplacements for guns has been pushed with much vigor where the money was available, particularly at New York, Delaware River and Charleston. The first consideration was to provide for the needs of the seaports for which projects are approved, so as to protect as many as practicable against isolated attacks.

Kentucky Gentlemen Meet. Lexington, Ky., Nov. 1.—A desperate fight took place yesterday on a train near Beattyville between John Hargis and George Caldwell, in which the former was instantly killed and the latter fatally wounded. Pistols were the weapons used. An old grudge was the cause of the trouble. Hargis was a cousin of Judge Harts, the prominent Louisville lawyer, on the charge of the Kentucky court of appeals.

Death of James B. McMath. Williamsport, Nov. 1.—James B. McMath, a veteran newspaper man of this city, died suddenly tonight from hemorrhage. Mr. McMath was aged about 60 years and for the past twenty-five years had been city editor of the Gazette and City News, and had been in charge of the paper in Philadelphia, where his relatives reside.

Murder at Devil's Lake. Devil's Lake, N. D., Nov. 1.—E. J. Hildner was shot and instantly killed here yesterday by Thomas R. Corder, city treasurer, and a leading politician and business man. Corder claims the shooting was in self defense, as Hildnerworth had brutally assaulted him.
